The first lay-by after the Ferleiten toll station, in the larch forest.

2 Hochmais (1,850 m)

Many ride straight past, yet the view is one of the best on the north ramp: Großes Wiesbachhorn (3,564 m / 11,693 ft), Hohe Dock and six glaciers above the Ferleiten valley.

3 Haus Alpine Naturschau (2,260 m)

A small museum on high-mountain nature, with rock crystals and a marmot cinema.

At 2,571 m (8,435 ft) the highest point you can reach by motorcycle here.

5 Fuscher Törl (2,428 m)

From the Salzburg side, your first view of the Großglockner.

6 Birds of prey (2,320 m)

Information boards on golden eagles, bearded vultures and griffon vultures.

7 Fuscher Lacke (2,262 m)

A small mountain lake right by the road, with a 10-minute loop walk.

8 Tauern Window (2,290 m)

Large rock blocks by the roadside explain the geology: the Tauern Window exposes rock that normally lies deep inside the Alps.

9 Hochtörl (2,504 m)

The pass summit at 2,504 m (8,215 ft).

10 Schöneck (1,953 m)

A restaurant on the glacier road with a sunny terrace, just before the road climbs to the Kaiser-Franz-Josefs-Höhe.

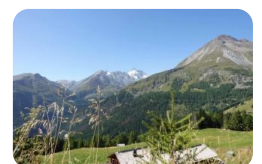

11 Kaiser-Franz-Josefs-Höhe (2,369 m)

The end of the glacier road and for many the highlight: the Großglockner (3,798 m / 12,461 ft) and the Pasterze, Austria's largest glacier, right in front of you.

12 Kasereck (1,911 m)

The last stop before Heiligenblut, with a view into the upper Möll valley and a show dairy.
