

Stelvio Pass by Motorcycle: Loop over the Umbrail and Val Müstair

Length
67 km

Highest point
2,757 m

As of
October 26, 2026

Stops

- 1 Prad am Stilfser Joch (915 m)
The starting point in the Vinschgau valley.

- 2 Gomagoi (1,267 m)
A hamlet in the narrow gorge where the road to Sulden branches off.

- 3 Trafoi (1,543 m)
The last village before the big hairpins, with an open view of the Ortler and the Trafoi ice wall.

- 4 Franzenshöhe (2,188 m)
The inn halfway up the hairpins, a stop since the days of the mail coaches.

5 Stelvio Pass summit (2,757 m)

At 2,757 m (9,045 ft) the second-highest paved pass in the Alps after the Col de l'Iseran.

6 Umbrail Pass (2,501 m)

Just below the summit on the Bormio side, the Umbrail Pass branches off: at 2,501 m (8,205 ft) the highest pass road in Switzerland.

7 Santa Maria Val Müstair (1,375 m)

After many tight hairpins through larch forest you reach the first village in the Val Müstair.

8 Müstair, St. John's Convent (1,247 m)

Right before the Italian border stands the Benedictine Convent of St.

9 Glurns (907 m)

One of the smallest towns in the Alps, with its town walls fully intact and an arcaded main street.

10 Bormio (detour) (1,225 m)

If you want to ride the whole pass road, take the detour at the Umbrail junction down to Bormio: about 19 km (12 mi) with many hairpins, galleries and short tunnels, past the Bagni Vecchi thermal baths.
